ABOUT INTERNATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

International Model United Nations (IMUN) is an academic simulation of the United Nations where the participants play the role as delegates from different countries and attempt to solve real global issues with the policies and perspectives of their assigned country. It is a "learning by doing" method of studying about the diplomacy, international relations and the United Nations. International MUN is an exciting opportunity to debate issues that confront world leaders, to draft world resolutions in response to the global issues and work with others who are equally motivated and passionate about the topics of debate. The longevity and dynamic that only a conference of our size can achieve, make IMUN one of the preeminent simulations of the United Nations in the world. IMUN is aimed to provide a platform for youth to learn about diplomacy, critical thinking, public speaking and the United Nations conference. The ultimate goal of IMUN is to encourage the youth to be aware of the international issues, understand and try to form a possible solution to solve global issues. We hope through IMUN, participants learn the importance of balancing national interests with the needs of the international community.

OBJECTIVES OF IMUN CONFERENCE

- ✓ To develop deeper knowledge on current global issues and improve critical thinking.
- ✓ To strengthen participants' diplomacy skills and develop ideas to solve current global problems.
- ✓ To improve researching, public speaking, debating, and writing skills in addition to critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership abilities.
- ✓ To differentiate between the parliament and the UN, while distinguishing power struggle from diplomacy.
- ✓ To improve international exposure by gaining experiences from delegates across the world.

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Greetings Everyone,

With pleasure and honor, I invite you to the Tenth session of the International Model United Nations Philippines 2023. This event will be hosted at the University of Asia & the Pacific in Manila from 8th to 10th November, 2023.

In the previous session, International MUN Indonesia saw participation from 160+ delegates representing 40+ countries, supported by the United Nations in Indonesia, elevating its significance. Building on the triumph of the International MUN Philippines, we are delighted to collaborate with the esteemed University of Asia & the Pacific. The International MUN serves as an exceptional platform for youth to engage in constructive debates, nurturing diplomatic skills in young diplomats and preparing them to become future leaders.

Eager to deliver another outstanding conference, we provide participants from all corners of the globe with an enriching and academically fulfilling experience. We look forward to your presence this November in Manila, Philippines.

Best regards,

Mohneesh Bhardwaj

Executive Chairman,

International MUN Philippines 2023

COUNCIL'S OVERVIEW

International MUN will provide 6 committees.

Each committee has two interesting topics that will be discussed at the conference.

UNDP

(UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME)

United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) is also known as the United Nations global development network. It is primarily concerned with achieving the eradication of poverty, reducing inequalities and exclusion, helping developing and least developed countries to formulate policies, leadership skills, partnering abilities, institutional capabilities and building resilience in order to achieve sustainable development according to the 17 Sustainable Development Goals. UNDP is also helping countries to have proper aid utilisation, and also promoting inclusion.

UNESCO or United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization, specialised agency of the United Nations that was chartered in a constitution, was signed on November 16, 1945. The constitution, which entered into force in 1946, has the main tenacity to promote international collaboration in the field of Education, Science and Culture. The organisations headquarters are in Paris, France.

UNESCO has 195 member states and ten associate members. Most of its field offices are 'cluster' offices, covering three or more countries; national and regional offices also exist. UNESCO's activities have been primarily facilitative, intended at assisting, supporting, and supplementing the national efforts of member states to eradicate illiteracy and to expand the access of education.

WHO

(WORLD HEALTH ORGANISATION)

World Health Organization (WHO) is a specialized agency of the United Nations concerned with International Public Health. Its primary role is to direct and coordinate international health within the United Nations system.

Its main areas of work are health systems, health through the life-course, non communicable and communicable diseases, preparedness, surveillance and response, and corporate services.

United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) is led by UN Women and devoted to safeguarding global health and individual rights. With a firm commitment to gender equality and women's empowerment, the committee addresses critical issues like population dynamics, reproductive health, and gender parity. UNFPA and UN Women collaborate through comprehensive programs and advocacy to ensure universal access to healthcare, education, and opportunities for a brighter, equitable future. Their joint efforts aim to create a world where everyone can lead dignified, healthy, and fulfilling lives.

UNFPA

(UNITED NATIONS POPULATION FUND)

UNICEF

(UNITED NATIONS
CHILDREN'S FUND)

UNICEF is a United Nations agency responsible for providing humanitarian and developmental aid to children worldwide. The agency is among the most widespread and recognisable social welfare organizations in the world, with a presence in 192 countries and territories.

UNICEF's activities include providing immunisations and disease prevention, administering treatment for children and mothers with HIV, enhancing childhood and maternal nutrition, improving sanitation, promoting education, and providing emergency relief in response to disasters.

World Food Programme (WFP), a crucial committee within the United Nations, is dedicated to combatting global hunger and food insecurity. As the largest humanitarian agency fighting hunger worldwide, WFP tirelessly provides life-saving aid and nourishment to those affected by conflicts, natural disasters, and poverty. Utilizing innovative approaches and strategic partnerships, WFP not only delivers immediate food aid but also focuses on sustainable solutions to break the cycle of hunger and malnutrition. With a profound commitment to reaching vulnerable populations, the World Food Programme plays a crucial role in promoting food security, nutrition, and resilience, working towards a hunger-free world.
